

GIVES LAND TO Y. W. C. A.
NEXT TO VACATION LODGE

Three Acres Donated by Dr. J. T. Johnson to Be Used for Erection of Clubhouse.

Dr. Joseph T. Johnson of this city has given to the Y. W. C. A. of the District of Columbia, three acres adjoining the site of the Vacation Lodge of the association at Cherrydale, Va. Dr. Johnson's gift, which is a part of the parcel of land on which his summer home stands, will be used for the erection of a suitable clubhouse for the Girl Reserves of the association, who range in age from twelve to eighteen years. The deed to the gift was executed yesterday and has been sent to be recorded.

Camp Winona, as the Girl Reserves' camp is known for the last two years, has been situated at Edgemoor, Md. The stay of a patron is limited to two weeks, which period she has the benefit of the advice and supervision of a director of various recreational activities and classes in appropriate outdoor subjects. With its removal to the new and more extended site, on which a suitable permanent building can be erected, a marked advance in the scope of its activities and an increase in patronage are expected. The Chevy Chase Chapter has offered to defray the cost of the building up to the sum of $2,500. The ground on which the Vacation Lodge, maintained for the older members of the Y. W. C. A., and especially for the women in business, is situated, was also donated by Dr. Johnson some years ago. The lodge itself, the erection of which was made possible through a campaign made by the Indoor-Outdoor Club, the oldest and, perhaps, most important of the various association clubs and groups, last summer celebrated its tenth anniversary.

ORDERED TO U. S. S. KANSAS. Commander Arthur C. Kall has been detached from duty at the naval station, Tutuila, Samoa, and ordered to the battleship Kansas.

Y. W. C. A. BIDS FRIENDS
TO OUTDOOR BREAKFAST

Thanksgiving Morn Event Scheduled at Blue Triangle Center, 20th and B Streets.

Hundreds of members, patrons and friends of the Y. W. C. A. not to mention members of the board of managers and of the secretarial staff, are expected to attend the second annual Thanksgiving outdoor breakfast, scheduled for tomorrow morning from 9 until 11 o'clock, in the courtyard of the Blue Triangle Recreation Center, 20th and B streets northwest. Those intending to join the crowds around the big open-air bonfire are advised they must bring their own beverages or other edibles to be cooked, including bread or rolls, while the association will furnish the heat and the coffee, sugar and cream. A group from the Y. M. C. A. will cooperate under the leadership of Mr. Myers, social secretary, in the case of stormy weather the picnic will take place in the glass-enclosed terraces open first substituted for the bonfire. Miss E. Florence Clark, recreational secretary of the hut, assisted by J. O. Johnson, recreational secretary of the men's association, will be in charge of games, while Miss Ritchie will lead the community singing, which this year is to be a feature. A large attendance is both expected and desired. In addition to the picnic breakfast, there will be a similar picnic breakfast, with no additional activities, proved to be a most popular innovation, and those who missed it were envious of their determination not to do so again. Appropriate dinners will be the rule at the evening Thanksgiving giving doings at both main association headquarters, 1333 F street, and at street branch, 614 E street northwest. There will be orchestras at both places. Miss Helen McQuillen will sing at main headquarters and there will also be stories and general singing. Similar entertainment will be provided at the branch "Y," where open fires form an especially homelike feature. Coffee and nuts will be served at both centers.

G. U. ALUMNI TO ATTEND
MASS FOR DEAD IN WAR

Fife and Drum Corps From Fort Myer Will Give Signal for the March.

Distinguished alumni from all over the country will assemble at Georgetown College Sunday morning, December 5, to attend a military mass in honor of the graduates of the university who gave their lives in the world war. Forty former officers, all of them Georgetown graduates, will form a reception committee, under Col. J. S. Esch-Smith, a member of the law faculty. The two cadet companies of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, commanded by Maj. Willard H. Hobson, U. S. A., will act as the military escort for the alumni, many of whom will appear in uniform. The Fife and Drum Corps from Fort Myer will give the signal for the alumni to march in a procession to the chapel. The services are being held in honor of the soldiers dead. Music for the mass will be given by the Trinity Church choir, under the direction of George Herbert Wells. The Rev. Vincent S. McDonough, S. J., pastor of the church, will officiate. Other officers of the mass will be: Francis R. Donovan, S. J., dean; Rev. Anthony Ruenther, subdeacon; while the Rev. Thomas J. Gannon, S. J., will deliver the sermon. The Rev. Charles E. Evans, S. J., will be the officiating priest. The Rev. James O'Neill, S. J., will be the officiating priest.

JAMES H. DONAHUE DEAD.

Had Been Resident of Washington for Fourteen Years.

James H. Donahue, formerly of Albany, N. Y., and a resident of Washington for the past fourteen years, died at his home, 1308 1st street northwest, at the age of sixty-six years. He had been troubled with heart disease for about a year. Mr. Donahue was born in Albany, where he has a wide circle of friends. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Donahue, and by two sons and two daughters—William A. Walter, Jr., Mary T. and Helen M. Donahue, all residents of this city. Funeral services were held today, with requiem mass, at St. Martin's Church, 14th and T streets. Interment will be at Albany, N. Y.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Frank Brooks, colored, charged with assault upon Miss Gertrude M. Gardner in Chevy Chase, was arraigned yesterday before Judge McMahon in the United States bench, Police Court, and committed to jail, awaiting action of the grand jury. Brooks was arrested October 17. The defendant was committed without bond, and it was pointed out by Ralph Given, assistant United States attorney, that another charge of assault will be filed against Brooks by Miss Ethel Christian, who was attacked in the same neighborhood.

GEORGIAN HERE ON TOUR, VISIT THE WHITE HOUSE

Gov. Dorsey Among 125 Returning to Atlanta After Trip to East and Middle West.

One hundred and twenty-five leaders of industrial and educational activities in Georgia arrived here today en route to Atlanta after an extensive tour of the New England states and the middle west. The party is headed by Dr. K. M. Matheson, president of the National Research Council, and Gov. Hugh M. Dorsey is among the visitors.

The party was welcomed by a committee of the National Research Council at the Union station, and went to the bureau of standards for an inspection of the development of Georgia's resources and for the modernization of manufacturing establishments.

Following the visit to the bureau of standards the party went to the White House, where they were received by Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President.

President Robert N. Harper of the Chamber of Commerce entertained the visitors at luncheon at the New Willard Hotel after their departure from the White House, with the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the District Chamber of Commerce acting as hosts.

The special train left for Atlanta early this afternoon.

The purpose of the trip is an inspection of the manufacturing plants throughout the north in connection with the campaign for greater industrial development of Georgia's resources and for the modernization of manufacturing establishments.

IN MEMORIAM.

BALL. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, GEORGINA BALL, who passed away five years ago today, November 23, 1915.

How sadly we have counted the hours That pass like days, and years like hours Since our dear mother was laid beneath the sod.

The one we loved so dear, And a chair in our home which never can be filled.

HER LOVING HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

BOTTLER. In sad but loving memory of our dear mother, MARY E. BOTTLER, who departed this life three years ago today, November 23, 1917, aged 5 years and 1 month.

November once again is here, To us the saddest of the year, For we recall the day when our dear mother was laid beneath the sod.

So sad and sudden was the call, Dear Mary, your death surprised us all. But perhaps some day we shall understand When we meet you in the better land.

In the graveyard, gently sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave, Like the one we loved so dear, In her lonely, silent grave.

She is gone, but not forgotten; Sweetest thoughts still always linger Around the grave where she is laid. Three years have passed, but still we miss her.

Frieda may think the sorrow healed, But little do they know the sorrow That lies within our hearts concealed. Days of sadness still come over us, Secret tears do often flow.

But memory keeps you ever near us, Though you died three years ago. HER LOVING MOTHER AND FATHER.

BOTTLER. In loving memory of our darling little MARY, who departed this life three years ago today, November 23, 1917.

God needed one more washed To bloom in His garden fair. So He took our dear sweet Mary, And transplanted her over there.

And held her at the last, And heard the sigh from her heart, I would not feel so bad.

I did not know the pain she bore, And did not see her die, Only know she went away, And did not say goodbye.

Days of sadness still come over us, Secret tears do often flow. With warm, glad, holy thought to fill The lonely hours when you were near.

With warm, glad, holy thought to fill The lonely hours when you were near. HER DEVOTED HUSBAND, MOTHER AND SISTER.

COLEMAN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter and sister, CAROLYN E. COLEMAN, who departed this life eight years ago today, November 23, 1919.

Oh, memory still, thy ministry still I keep among the flowers. With warm, glad, holy thought to fill The lonely hours when you were near.

With warm, glad, holy thought to fill The lonely hours when you were near. HER DEVOTED HUSBAND, MOTHER AND SISTER.

FAIRFAX. In loving and devoted memory of our dear daughter, FAIRFAX, who passed away five years ago today, November 23, 1915.

I watched you, dear mother, fading, but little That on this day one year ago your soul from me was freed.

No mother now to guide me with love sincere And true; No mother to caress me as you would want to do.

The dear one now is sleeping, No care is on her brow, Oh, blame me not for weeping, I have no mother now.

Oh, my mother, I had to part, Of her lovely soul's heart, HER LOVING DAUGHTER.

FATE. In loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, RAYMOND FATE, who died five years ago today, November 24, 1915.

Days of sadness still come over me, To the grave when my dear son lies. But memory keeps you ever near me, Though you left me five years ago.

THE FAMILY.

GRINDLEY. In sweet memory of our beloved daughter, GRINDLEY, who passed away three years ago today, November 24, 1919.

KOPP. A sacred tribute of love and devotion to my dear husband, FRANK KOPP, who departed this life eight years ago today, November 24, 1912. Anniversary mass at St. Martin's Church.

HIS DEVOTED WIFE MARGARET.

LYNCH. In loving remembrance of my dear father, THOMAS LYNCH, who departed this life twelve years ago today, November 24, 1908.

HIS DEVOTED DAUGHTER VERA.

QUANTRELLE. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Mrs. A. V. QUANTRELLE, who died two years ago today, November 24, 1918.

My mother there awaits me, For I have had to part, Of her lovely soul's heart, HER LOVING SON FERRY.

ROLLINS. In loving memory of our little darling, GERTRUDE ROLLINS, who departed this life thirteen years ago today, November 24, 1907.

There are thoughts that never perish, Oh, how precious is your name! In life we loved you dearly, And in death we do the same.

THE FAMILY.

TUCKER. In loving remembrance of our dear father, SILAS R. TUCKER, who died two years ago today, November 24, 1918.

We grieve for your dear father, But not with outward show, For the heart that mourns sincerely Mourns itself and alone.

HIS SON THOMAS AND FAMILY.

TURNER. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, who departed this life two years ago today, November 24, 1918.
